

User Pathways

Sketch a solution (this could be a service, a resource, a role/office) to the core challenge: What would it take to make it easier for researchers on campus to navigate and take advantage of existing research data support services? This can be any idea you can think up that would improve the visibility of or increase usage of research data support services on campus

Collective Action

